Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)(c) Place of Compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

(A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or

(B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person

(i) is a party or a party's officer; or

(ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

(A) production of documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and

(B) inspection of premises at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction—which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees—on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing, or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises—or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

(i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;

(ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) expressly describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt.

The court for the district where compliance is required—and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court—may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

The Honorable Bruce E. Reinhart

PLAINTIFFS' SUBPOENA FOR BRENDAN JAY SULLIVAN

YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 45, to produce the documents and things designated herein for inspection at Roche Freedman LLP, 185 Wythe Avenue F2, Brooklyn, NY 11249, or such other place as is mutually agreed upon between You and counsel for Plaintiffs, by September 10, 2019 as provided under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. This subpoena for documents, including each individual Request for Documents (collectively, the "Requests"), shall be read and interpreted in accordance with the definitions and instructions identified below.

DEFINITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS

Plaintiffs incorporate by reference all the instructions, definitions, and rules contained in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and for purposes of this Subpoena, the following instructions and definitions shall apply:

1. The singular of each word shall be construed to include its plural and vice-versa, and the root word and all derivations (e.g., "ing," "ed") shall be construed to include each other. The words "and" as well as "or" shall be construed both conjunctively and disjunctively.
2. If the requested documents are maintained in a file, the file folder is included in the request for production of those documents.

3. The term “Craig Wright” and/or “Defendant” shall mean Defendant Craig Wright and any Person or Trust (as defined herein) of which (a) Craig Wright is an owner, shareholder, member, manager, director, officer, trustee, employee, or beneficiary of (“CSW Persons/Trusts”), or that (b) is controlled by Craig Wright or any CSW Persons/Trusts.

4. “Person” or “persons” shall mean each and every individual, corporation, partnership, joint venture, social or political organization, or any other entity, incorporated or unincorporated, or encompassed within the usual and customary meaning of “person” or “persons.”

5. The term “trust” shall include any arrangement, entity, vehicle, agreement, deed, or relationship, in any jurisdiction, where the person with title or control over property has duties to deal with it for another’s benefit. Due to variances in various jurisdictions’ laws, this definition should not be given an overly formalistic construction, but a liberal one. It should include any arrangement bearing a similarity to a “trust,” and any such arrangement you (or others) have actually referred to as a “trust.”

6. The term “concerning” means “relating to,” “referring to,” “describing,” “evidencing” or “constituting.”

7. The terms “document” or “documents” shall mean any written, typewritten, handwritten, printed, graphic, photographic, electronic or recorded materials, including, but not limited to the following: correspondence and drafts of correspondence; e-mails; SMS messages; Whatsapp messages; Signal messages; Twitter DMs; Facebook messages; any other form of messages or communications; notes or summaries of conversations; forms; schedules or worksheets; memoranda; reports; comments; worksheets; plans; minutes; notes; notices or notifications; findings; brochures; circulars; bulletins; advertisements; records; summaries or other reports of conferences, meetings, visits, surveys, discussions, inspections, and examinations; journals; logs; ledgers; balance sheets; profit and loss statements; purchase orders; quotations; estimates; invoices; bids; receipts; pledge commitments; acknowledgments; credit memoranda; contract or lease offers or proposals; income tax returns; check stubs (front and back); sales vouchers or records; executed or proposed agreements; contracts; deeds; franchise agreements; licenses; leases; insurance policies and riders or options; proposals; diaries; desk calendars; appointment books; evaluations; applications; telephone call books, notes or records; affidavits, deposition transcripts, statements or summaries or excerpts thereof; stenographic notes; financial data; newspaper or magazine articles; pamphlets; books; texts; notebooks; magazines; manuals; publications; notepads; tabulations; data compilations; calculations; or computations; schedules; drafts; charts and maps; forecasts and projections; feasibility studies; drawings, designs, plans, specifications; graphs, blueprints, sketches, or diagrams; printouts or other stored information from computers or other information retention or processing systems; hard drives, USB drives, disks, CD's, DVD's, tapes, videotapes; photographic matter or sound reproduction matter however produced, reproduced or stored; computer data of any kind whatsoever; any exhibits, attachments, or schedules to or with the foregoing; any drafts of the foregoing; any of the foregoing that exist in a form by which they are protected by computer encryption; any copies or duplicates of the foregoing that are different because of marginal or handwritten notations, or because of any markings thereon; the inclusion of specific examples within any individual request does not limit the definition provided herein and should be viewed as merely as examples meant to facilitate production.

8. "Copy" when used in reference to a document means any color, or black and white facsimile reproduction of a document, regardless of whether that facsimile reproduction is made by means of carbon papers, pressure sensitive paper, xerography or any other means of process.

9. “Communication” and “communicate” shall mean any recordation, exchange or transfer of information, whether in writing, audio, oral or other form, including, but not limited to, memoranda or notes, telephone conversations and meetings, letters, telegraphic and telex communications, email communications, SMS messages, Twitter DMs, Facebook messages, Whatsapp messages, Signal messages, any other form of messages or communications, blogs, voicemails, and includes all information relating to all oral or written communications and “documents” (as herein above defined), whether or not such document, or information contained herein was transmitted by its author to any other person; the inclusion of specific examples within any individual request does not limit the definition provided herein and should be viewed as merely as examples meant to facilitate production.

10. A draft of a non-identical copy is considered a separate document.

11. The terms “electronically stored information” and “ESI” are defined to be synonymous in meaning and equal in scope to the usage of “electronically stored information” in Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(a)(1)(A). “ESI” includes data on all servers, including IP addresses, MAC addresses, active data, archived data, deleted data, and legacy data, as well as data on removable electronic media and in any other location where documents relevant to the Requests may be found.

12. “Person” or “persons” shall mean each and every individual, corporation, partnership, joint venture, social or political organization, or any other entity, incorporated or unincorporated, or encompassed within the usual and customary meaning of “person” or “persons.”

13. “Agent” shall mean: any agent, employee, officer, director, attorney, independent contractor or any other person acting at the direction of or on the behalf of another.

14. “Date” shall mean the exact day, month and year if ascertainable or, if not, the best approximation, including relationship to other events.

15. The term “materials” shall mean (1) the elements, constituents, or substances of which something is composed or can be made; something (as data) that may be worked into a more finished form (2) apparatus necessary for doing or making something; (3) The substance or substances out of which a thing is or can be made; and/or (4) Tools or apparatus for the performance of a given task.

16. The terms “You” and “Your” shall mean and refer to Brendan Jay Sullivan.

17. The term “including” shall be construed as “including, but not limited to.”

18. When referring to a person, “to identify” means to give, to the extent known, the person’s full name and present or last known address.

19. The term “trust” shall include any arrangement, entity, vehicle, agreement, deed, or relationship, in any jurisdiction, where the person with title or control over property has duties to deal with it for another’s benefit. Due to variances in various jurisdictions’ laws, this definition should not be given an overly formulistic construction, but a liberal one. It should include any arrangement bearing a similarity to a “trust,” and any such arrangement you (or others) have actually referred to as a “trust.”

20. Any reference to a person that is a business entity and is not otherwise defined includes that person’s predecessors (including any pre-existing person that at any time became part of that entity after merger or acquisition), successors, parents, divisions, subsidiaries, affiliates, franchisors and franchisees; each other person, directly or indirectly owned or controlled by any of them; each partnership or joint venture to which any of them is a party; all present and former directors, officers, employees, agents, consultants, controlling shareholders

(and any entity owned by any such controlling shareholder), and attorneys of any of them; and any other person acting for or on behalf of any of them.

21. Unless words or terms have been given a specific definition herein, each word or term used herein shall be given its usual and customary dictionary definition, except where such words have a usual custom and usage definition in your trade or industry, in which case they shall be interpreted in accordance with such usual custom and usage definition of which you are aware.

22. Pursuant to Rule 45(e)(1)(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, documents shall be produced either (a) as they are kept in the usual course of business (in which case they shall be produced in such fashion as to identify the department, branch or office in whose possession it was located and, where applicable, the natural person in whose possession it was found or the server or central file in which it was found, and the address of each document's custodian(s)), or (b) segregated as responsive to a specific Request enumerated in these Requests, with such specific Request identified.

23. If you file a timely objection to any portion of a Request, definition, or instruction, provide a response to the remaining portion.

24. The relevant period for these requests is January 1, 2006 to the time of the response to this subpoena. If any document is undated and the date of its preparation cannot be determined, the document shall be produced if otherwise responsive to any of the Requests.

25. The terms defined above and used in each of the Requests should be construed broadly to the fullest extent of their meaning in a good-faith effort to comply with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
